Cider Frolic and Piggy Plod will make a return for 2019 on 28 & 29 July set on the beautiful Cranbourne Chase Cider home. Your chance to start the school holidays in style with a weekend away for all the family. <http://whitestarrunning.co.uk/cider-frolic-piggy-plod-2019/>

Crafty Fox will return on the same weekend as this year - 7 & 8 September with a tough trail course, taking in some spectacular views from Antsy <http://whitestarrunning.co.uk/crafty-fox-2019/>

Our second new race for 2019 is Run Jurassic, a variety of coastal races over weekend of 28 and 29 September, with entries expected to open soon.

Cupless Frolic's

For 2019 we are trialling having cupless events at the frolic races. To help reduce our waste you'll need to bring a cup or bottle to use. Aid station staff will fill up your vessel whenever you like and you can even leave it at the aid stations if you wish, where our crew will look after them. Don't fear if you don't think you have a suitable cup, then we have some new designs coming in next week that will be available from whitestarclothing.co.uk

Once again taking place in January this amazing Running Expo in Birmingham has lots of brilliant speakers and organisations attending- we'll be there again and it's set to be bigger & better this year so make sure you get your tickets before they all go <https://nationalrunningshow.com/>

Can you help make a WSR event special?
